

Risk Awareness

It's important to us that you have as much information as possible about the person you will be supporting early in the recruitment process. We have found that sharing as much detail as possible from the start really helps new colleagues begin to understand the person they support and to be better prepared for when they join us.

Does the person we support smoke?

Nope

Is there substance misuse by the person we support?

Nope

Is physical hands-on support required?

Nope

Does the person we support make physical contact with staff?

Can be physical

Is there any likelihood of verbal or physical abuse?

Verbal and Physical Abuse

Does the person we support require personal care?

Nope

Does the person we support have any pets?

Nope

Are there any other potential risks?

Nope